Upcoming Event:

Warren Township Youth and Family Services and Zacharias Center present a Professional Training...

ETHICS AND CULTURAL COMPETENCE IN CLINICAL PRACTICE

Participants of this workshop will learn principles that guide ethical and culturally competent clinical practice. In addition to discussing the characteristics of the culturally competent provision of individual, group, and family therapy, this workshop will examine how to ethically work with diverse communities, address intersectionality, microaggressions, and develop an inclusive organization. This workshop is ideal for social workers, therapists, caseworkers, and anyone who wants to provide culturally competent clinical and human services.

Friday, November 12th

9:00am - 12:15pm

Location: Warren Township Senior Center
